

POSITION TITLE:

Assembly Line Worker

General Description:

Automotive Assemblers: Perform a variety of tasks in putting together automobiles, trucks or automobile and truck parts. May be assigned to different work stations on the assembly line depending upon production needs.

Electrical Accessories Assemblers: Put together mechanical parts of electrical equipment such as light sockets, switches, terminal boards and plugging devices.

Electronics Assemblers: Put together electronic equipment and components such as computers, electronic test equipment, cellular telephones, amplifiers, televisions, radios, modems and circuit boards. Use many different types of hand and power tools, test equipment and follow blueprints, schematic drawings and wiring diagrams.

Furniture Assemblers: Put together wooden parts or assemblies to make sections, frames or complete articles of furniture.

Machine Assemblers: Put together machines and equipment such as stokers, blowers and compression pumps according to customer's individual needs.

Line Appliance Assemblers: Put together major household or commercial appliances such as ranges, ovens, washing machines, dryers and water heaters.

Industrial Equipment Assemblers & Wirers: Install electrical wiring and assemble components in control cabinets, electrical equipment and industrial equipment.

Skills/Duties:

- Ability to follow procedures
- Reading skills
- Attention to detail in a fast-paced environment
- Perform the same task repeatedly
- Picture 3-dimensional objects from drawings or diagrams
- See differences in the size and shape of lines or objects
- Follow instructions and work accurately
- Make decisions based on standards that can be checked
- Work under pressure

Requirements:

On the job training. Graduation from a technical education program may be required.

Reporting Relationship:

Work under general supervision and typically report to a manager or head of a unit/department.

I have read the description of my professional responsibilities as an employee of GSN and agree to adhere to the standards described above.

---

Signature

Date